Review

Follow your imagination with these intricate and surreal illustrations by Kerby Rosanes. Animals morph into one another, and tons of tiny details all add up to make a leopard's head. Sharpen your pencils, and your wits (Buzzfeed.com)

It's a fun book recommended to those who like doodles, sketches, pen and ink and whimsical goodness (parkablogs.com)

Hyper-detailed doodling with manga influences... a young adult colouring-in experience. (Zoe Williams The Guardian)

This book is quirky, adventurous and full of life and anyone will adore it. (The Blogger's Bookshop) About the Author

Philippines-based illustrator Kerby Rosanes works mainly with ordinary black pens to magically illustrate his "doodle" world. Most of his works are characterized by whimsical lines, patterns, characters and little elements that are spontaneously combined to create massive compositions depicting his everyday experiences or anything that inspires him. He recently left his job as a graphic designer in a local company to finally pursue his passion: creating more art for personal projects and for various clients and collaborating with other artists and design agencies around the world.
